IN APPRECIATION

Listen to the members clapping for Dick Schmidt as a way of saying thanks for all he does for Clubside - day in day out and week in week out - by his many acts of helping and hosting plus his constant effort of keeping Clubside costs down. In addition to all his efforts with our books and planning, getting the landscape company appointed, lending and then installing a TV for the Super Bowl Tailgate party, rearranging furniture for events, and a thousand other helping hands to members in need. Always with a note of encouragement no matter what the concern is. Our daily paths are a lot easier because he takes the time to lend a hand and a smile. Thanks Dick!

It was Mark Twain who said %o] | isework a body is not obligated to á [. +We see Clubsideers out each day on the golf course (sometimes four times a week), playing tennis or jogging to the gym or just on a brisk morning walk. Let the Strand announce a dinner dance and you will see Clubsideers out dancing the life fantastic.

Clubsideers as a group are living proof that the words %o^ | áand aged %should be taken out of Y ^ à • c dictionary, for all of us living a good life is a full time job. Walk up Three Iron Drive . you will meet independent, sharp, and fun to be with neighbors.

Clubsideers are readers appreciating the world inside a book cover. Some of us read for insight, escape or knowledge. At place and time we can choose giving us access to anything our minds can hold. Just keep turning the pages.

Listen to the chat among members who discover secret nature spots along the Gulf and the Everglades with camera in hand. We are living proof that we live life to the fullest regardless of what the birthday book says. How good to know we have a board of directors who are thinkers and doers keeping us active filled with new interests and friends along the way.
